Student of the Month – by Sandra Gonzales

Jason Elizalde----- National Hispanic Scholar

Jason's future dreams are many. Basically, he has not made up his mind as to what he wants to study. He has the potential to do any field of study he chooses to pursue due to his outstanding "Grade Point Average". At present he has a dream of becoming an engineer, possibly a Nuclear Engineer, Ocean Engineer, Chemical Engineer or an Aeronautic Engineer.

His strong point is math, numbers just work easily for him. Which leaves the door open to do any math related field. His college choices are in this order: Harvard, Notre Dame, and A&M -College Station. After he graduates with a degree in engineering, if he is not too tired he will then pursue medicine and hopefully become a doctor.

You go Jason!

Some of Jason's favorite activities are swimming, relaxing, hanging with friends and eating. He also loves music, both listening and playing. These activities help him de-stress. Jason's greatest desire is to make his place in the world and he hopes to make a positive and indelible mark.

Jaclyn Uribe ----- National Hispanic Scholar

Jaclyn has one dream and that is to be a Fashion Designer and attend the Parson's School of Design in New York. Jaclyn is somewhat shy and finds it somewhat intimidating going so far away from home. But, Jaclyn's dream is such that she is going to swallow hard and not let anything stop her. Jaclyn has many loves. The first is drawing. At present she is taking two art classes and is stellar in that area. She also enjoys music and has the ability to play music by ear. If she hears the music she can pluck it out on the piano. Lastly, her love of the French language. She hopes to become proficient in speaking French and perhaps travel to France and scope out the fashion scene. Some of her favorite things to do are reading and watching movies. She adores fiction novels and the oldie but goldie movies that stir ones heart and soul. Jaclyn also enjoys working in the community through her church by working at the Food Pantry and the Clothing Closet. Jaclyn most definitely will be a leader in the future.
