PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Edd Price introduced our guest speaker, Phil Cunningham. Mr. Cunningham spoke about his profession as a private investigator. Mr. Cunningham had some very good information about how to protect your identity. He suggested that you check your credit accounts continually and that you do a credit check at least once a year. He also mentioned that you should not forward those emails requesting you forward them. He said these are a resource for spammers to acquire the email address of everyone on your contact list. Mr. Cunningham also mentioned that you should not leave your magnetic hotel room key at the hotel. It has all your credit card and personal information coded on it. It was a very informative meeting.
