PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

DAVE WALKER almost introduced our speaker but he passed the honor to JIM FOWLER. JIM introduced Dr. Mark Escamilla who is the President of Del Mar College. Dr. Escamilla was born and raised in Corpus Christi. He has his PHD from the University of Texas in Austin.

Del Mar has over 180 instructional programs and serves about 20,000 students each year at its West and East Campuses. The College is completing a $108,000,000 bond program which was approved by the voters in 2003. Most of the bond program is at the West Campus.

The West Campus has programs in diagnostic medical sonography, homeland security, aviation maintenance, laser and fiber optics, pharmacy technology, and occupational safety and health. The Richardson auditorium was expanded at the East Campus. The Center for Economic Development is located in an old Albertson's Grocery building on Staples Street.

Approximately 80% of Del Mar graduates transfer to Texas A. & M. in Corpus Christi. The average cost for students is about $861 per semester for District residents.

The College has several certified programs and one that is very important to Rotarians is the Nurse Program. Do you want some who does not have a nurse certification sticking a needle in you?

Dr. Escamilla thanked SOUTHSIDE ROTARY for its support and all of support through tax money to the District.

BRAGGIN' BUCKS

- BETTY FRANTUM made a brag for ANGIE FROST for the City of Corpus Christi recognizing Americans with Disabilities.

SKIP BARNES donated his $16 winnings from the 50/50 raffle to Polio Plus. Thanks SKIP!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- President LARI stated that it was time to pass the basket to raise funds for Supply our Schools (SOS). SOUTHDISE ROTARY needs to raise $300.00 for the project. The money will be given to Rose Shaw Elementary School. We raised a total of $121.00 today. GREAT JOB.
- Past President Betty Frantum gave out Board Member awards to CLEM STRUVE, JIM FOWLER, and KATHY FUNK BAXTER.
